He's been waiting for her for almost 200 years, and he's not giving up now...

Ava Allen has had a long day in her shipping store, and the last thing she wants to see is a vampire in one of the storage room boxes. After fighting off the handsome Gabriel Dunning who says he loved her ancestor Ava and has come to claim her in the present with the help of a friend in hell, she goes home, watching her back in the night.

When Ava wakes up to see Gabriel fluttering at her window, begging for entrance, she can't resist him. When she gives in to his seduction, she finds herself in Regency England in her ancestor's body, thrust into events that threaten her life.

Gabriel has come back for Ava, and he won't stop until she submits her body and soul to his love.

This work is a novelette.
