Mma. Ramotswe, Botswana's first female detective continues to be engaged to J. L. B. Matekoni. It looks as the wedding is never going to take place; however, if there is anything this woman possesses in superlative quantities is patience. While she waits, her work piles up: a very rich woman, who owns a large chain of hair-dressing boutiques, is in search for a husband. But she is not sufficiently aware that her many suitors are not only after her money. Mma. Ramotswe, due to her observation skills and being talkative and a skilled observer, is the ideal person to help her dissipate her doubts. Alexander McCall vuelve a llevarnos al corazón de Botswana, un lugar donde el concepto del tiempo, del dinero y de la vida misma es muy distinto al de Occidente. Allí nos espera, preparando el té, uno de los personajes más encantadores e interesantes de la literatura actual.
