Once he starts to court Lucy her status in the other girls' eyes is raised considerably and when he asks her to return to Paris to live with him, it is as if a dream has come true.

That dream soon begins to collapse as she realizes what the Frenchman really wants and Lucy's loneliness develops into a deep depression. That is when she is first visited by Louis though Lucy has trouble deciding if he is a ghost from the middle world, as he claims, or some figment of an imagination deeply troubled by her sad and lonely situation.
