Book Production John Peacock

This is an important guide which is used as a training manual and reference source within the publishing industry. Published in collaboration with the Publishers Association, it is an extensive, comprehensive and authoritative volume and represents the only contemporary detailed consideration of the subject available in English. Written by the Production Director of an international publishing group, there are 500 pages of solid advice, facts and techniques, together with 76 illustrations. This has become the standard handbook for those involved in book production.
