Milton's Theology of Freedom (Arbeiten Zur Kirchengeschichte 98) Benjamin Myers

At the centre of John Milton's epic poem Paradise Lost (1667) is a radical commitment to divine and human freedom. This study situates Paradise Lost within the context of post-Reformation theological controversy, and pursues the theological portrayal of freedom as it unfolds throughout the poem. The study identifies and explores the ways in which Milton is both continuous and discontinuous with the major Protestant traditions in his depiction of predestination, creation, free will, sin, and conversion
