In a time when supernatural beings used humans as playthings, Shira fights to survive. Guardian warriors can only take the promised bride so far, until she must struggle on alone. But is she alone? Perceiving that Shira is a vital piece to the Great Creator's plan, the deadly Ancient Heroes of Old seek her out. Unaware of the battle that rages about her, Shira holds to the thread of a promise. Can she stand firm, even in the face of unleashed evil? And supposing she can, will the patriarch's son find her acceptable? An intriguing story that will send you back in time to the pre-flood world of Nephilim, monsters and unspeakable evil. Personally encounter the Great Creator through this imaginative page-turner.
