HISTORICAL REGENCY ROMANCE

Breeding for dowry was never really his thing...

Lord Adam Sonhurst, the seventh Marquess of Norfolk, is notorious for his rakish character. He has no intention of settling down any time soon. In fact, he would prefer downing a glass of poison than getting married. And he firmly believes that love is a dangerous notion that incapacitates a person's logical reasoning power. His father once fell in love with his mother and he had seen how that love had ruined him!

But his mother wants him to produce an heir soon to carry on the family legacy. She has chosen for him a lady of impeccable breeding who would also bring a sizeable dowry. As much as he loathes his mother, Adam knows that she is right. But he refuses to marry the girl of her choice.

When circumstances force him to get married to that very girl, he vows to make life hell for her!
