Charmaline's Treasures Charmaline K Kirilla

Within these pages are the memoirs of a truly remarkable woman whom I am proud to call my Mom. Her life reflected the strong principles taught her at home and the positive attitude influenced greatly by her life-long friendship with Sister Aimee Semple McPherson. She was devoted to her family with a keen sense of responsibility; and, although having an adventurous spirit, always managed to remain a Lady (with a capital "L"). She considered that being able to share her life with others was her greatest blessing and made her a better person. (Even my husband says, "Mom had a near-perfect soul". Not bad coming from a son-in-law!) It is delightful to have been able to share Charmaline's walk down memory lane with you. May this glimpse into her world enrich your life as much as it has mine and my husband's. I believe that Mom, herself, was the greatest of all her "Treasures" and that to know her was to love her .
